

WALSHIE'S WINE CULT

SUMMER PACK

Moorilla Muse Extra Brut Sparkling 2014

A toasting wine if ever there was one. The nose brings plenty of oak influence, which recedes and integrates on the palate. A lively bead in the glass carries nicely into the mouth, retaining a nice ticklish fizz of crisp apple, white nectarine (softer, gentler and more refined than typical stonefruit notes), light almond, and a nice floral lily-hyacinth bouquet into the impressively long finish.

Moorilla Praxis Sparkling Riesling 2019

With a light, fine bead, our Praxis Sparkling 2019 starts with tantalising wafts of lemon, nectarine and grapefruit. Then brace yourself for a lively palate of lemon sherbet, wizz fizz and an explosion of bubbles. Serve chilled, drink now. And then again tomorrow.

Domaine A Lady A 2017

The Lady returns. Originally made by Peter Althaus as a love letter to his beloved wife Ruth. As per usual, expect elegance and texture (whereas most sauvignon blancs lead with fruit and acid), aged for three years before release (most sauvignon blancs are released young). As with past vintages, the 2017 Lady A takes her cues from Bordeaux. Fermented in French oak barriques, matured on fine lees for twelve months, and then rested in the cellar until ready for release. It's well worth the wait.

Moorilla Praxis Chardonnay Musqué 2019

The pretty, pale, lemonsque hue gives no indication of the fruit bomb this wine actually is. On pouring you'll get a generous, summery nose of hibiscus, green tea, lemon sherbet and jasmine, while the palate is a silken-textured treat of green mango and crisp acidity. Medium bodied, it drinks beautifully cold. Keep an extra bottle chilling, for top-ups.

Domaine A Cabernet Sauvignon 2009

A wine of absolute dedication, the 2009 Domaine A Cabernet Sauvignon originates with the ancient, cool-climate terroir of Stoney Vineyard. Aromatics of cherry blossom, blackberry and clove mingle with whispers of cedar and a palate of ripe dark cherry and cassis characters. Fine tannic structure and a perfect natural balance build to a fresh, brilliant finish. A remarkable wine with a proven record of critical acclaim.

Mystery Bottle

All we can say about this one is it could be anything, but we promise it won't be bad. Might be a new release, a particular old favourite, or you might get lucky and pull an impossible-to-get back-vintage from the cellar. Only one way to find out.
